DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-19 have been examined.

Drawings

The corrected or substitute drawings were received on 22 July 2002. These drawings are acceptable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Grochowski et al. (USPN 5,535,347). The previous rejection is maintained, however the amended additional limitations are addressed as follows:

In regard to claim 1, Grochowski disclosed the following limitations:

i) [by a number corresponding to a byte length of a previous instruction in the instruction stream] (column 5, line 31 to column 7, line 11; column 5, lines 40-45, fourteen byte stream)

ii) [to a start of the instruction immediately following the previous instruction based upon the byte length of previous the instruction] (column 3, line 40; column 5, lines 40-45, fourteen byte stream)

Art Unit: 2124

In regard to claim 3, Grochowski disclosed the limitation [the byte length of the previous instruction] (column 3, lines 23-30).

In regard to claim 5, Grochowski disclosed the limitation [instruction immediately following the previous instruction] (column 3, line 40).

In regard to claims 7, 9, 11-16, the limitations repeat that which is mentioned above and are rejected in a similar manner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action. In regard to claim 19, the previous rejection is repeated here.

Remarks

Examiner has considered Applicant's arguments concerning the Grochowski rejection of claims 1-19. Applicant argues Grochowski: ^{a)} does not rotate the bytes of an instruction stream and ^{b)} does not include a shifting step. Examiner finds the arguments to not be persuasive. First, Grochowski does indeed rotate the bytes of the instruction stream (Figure 2, element 14, rotator; column 5, lines 40-45 indicate instruction stream of fourteen bytes). Second, Grochowski shifts the bytes to the start of the instruction which follows another instruction (column 7, line 31 to column 8, lines 11; indicates shifting to the next instruction). Applicant is reminded that the rotator itself is a shifter. Applicant is not only solving the same problem of Grochowski, but applicant's broad claims read upon rotating and shift as found in Grochowski.

Therefore, it can be clearly seen that the claimed invention reads upon Grochowski and lacks novelty. Further, with regard to the other independent claims, as the limitations are essentially the same, they are found to still read upon Grochowski as well.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
